

Expressions with either Gerund or infinitive...

Expressions with gerund

I am good at playing computer games.

She is brilliant at translating into English.

He is bad at managing his time.

They are awful at keeping their rooms tidy.

We enjoy singing.

You don't mind going out for a minute while we talk, do you?

I don't mind working a lot if the work is interesting.

Taking risks is not something everybody likes.

Are you afraid of talking in front of large crowds (i.e. lots of people)

Why don't you try sleeping a bit more. You might be less tired, then.

Do you like going on holiday with your family?

He absolutely hates brushing his teeth, silly little toddler!

We prefer cooking to doing the washing up.

I really regret not training more for this dance contest. We could've won!

She loves spending hours and hours in the bath and reading there.

I dislike being told what I have to do.

Making the right decision is only possible if you are informed enough.

We are all looking forward to seeing you soon.

What are you going to do after finishing this school?

Look at him! He looks so fit. Well, he gave up smoking a month ago.

Expressions with infinitive (with or without "to")

I'd like to travel the world after finishing this school.

She'd love to meet Brad Pitt just once in her life.

Do you find it difficult to study new words in English?

They find it easy to remember new words in any language.

What do you want to do about it?

He is so funny, he always makes me laugh.

Wait! Let me finish this before we are leaving.

What would you like to drink with your meal?

I am afraid to tell you that the test did not turn out well.

She always tries to find a solution for her problems.

Are you able to calculate large sums in your head?

Sorry, I haven't been able to finish the task yet.

I think I'd prefer to go now, otherwise I'll miss my train.

I am really sorry, but I'll have to leave now.

Ip hones are easy to operate (bedienen).

Multiplications are harder to do in your head than sums.

It is important for me to know what you think about it.

Is it difficult for you to get to my place by public transport?

Don't forget to ring me tonight.

They are saving money to buy a new house next year.