

Grammar revision

Reported speech – statements

1 Complete the second sentence so that it has a similar meaning to the first sentence. Use between two and five words, including the word given.

- 'I can't do this exercise,' Ethan said. ABLE
Ethan said she wasn't able to do the exercise.
- 'You must bring your passports,' the teacher said to them. TO
The teacher told them to bring their passports.
- 'It's on television tonight on Channel 4,' said Ava. THAT
Ava explained it was on Channel 4.
- 'I failed the exam,' said Daniel. PASSED
Daniel admitted not having passed the exam.
- 'I'm sure these are our seats,' said Chloe. WAS
Chloe claimed she was sure these were their seats.
- 'Maybe we have made a mistake,' Ben said to them. MIGHT
Ben warned them that they might have made a mistake.

WORKBOOK ▶ page 58

/6 points

Reported speech – questions

2 Complete the sentences using reported speech.

- 'Where have you just been?' Charlie asked Holly.
Charlie asked Holly where she had been (a moment before).
- 'Do you want to go to the cinema tonight?' Harry asked her.
Harry asked her if she wanted to go that night.
- 'Can you speak English?' Lucy asked the boy.
Lucy asked the boy if he could speak Engl.
- 'Will it rain next week when we're on holiday?' wondered Dave.
Dave wondered whether it would rain the following week.
- 'How did the magician do that trick?' Sophie wanted to know.
Sophie wanted to know the magician had done...
- 'Are you going to go out this weekend?' Grace asked Jack.
Grace asked Jack if he was going to go out this weekend.
- 'What have you been doing this morning?' Mum asked us.
Mum asked us what we had been doing that morning.

WORKBOOK ▶ page 58

/7 points

Reported speech – other reporting structures

3 Complete the text with the correct form of the verbs given. Add prepositions if necessary.

Last year the police (a) had promised to do (promise/do) something about people downloading films illegally. They (b) accused one man of making (accuse/one man/make) hundreds of illegal copies of a recent Hollywood blockbuster. They arrested him, but he (c) refused to answer (refuse/answer) any of their questions. In the end, he (d) admitted to (admit/do) it. He (e) confessed to copying (confess/copy) nearly one thousand films. He (f) apologised for causing (apologise/cause) any problems. The police (g) told him not to do (tell/him/not do) again.

WORKBOOK ▶ page 61

/7 points

Vocabulary revision

Music and film

1 Complete the sentences with words from Music and film on page 94.

- Their CDs are good but I prefer hearing them live.
- The film was good but the last part was too long. / scene
- I like his voice but not the way he sings.
- He's appeared as a minor character in lots of films but he's only the protagonist in one or two. / main character
- He loves making records but not getting up on stage.
- He usually plays the role of a criminal but in this film he's a police officer.
- It was a really sad film, but the soundtrack had lots of really fast, lively music.

WORKBOOK ▶ page 56

/7 points

Compound nouns and adjectives

3 Match the words in the two columns.

First word		Second word
1 take	c	a new
2 brand-	a	b provoking
3 draw	f	c over
4 thought-	b	d come
5 out	d	e gap
6 generation	e	f back

WORKBOOK ▶ page 59

/6 points

Media habits

2 Put the letters in bold in the correct order to make words.

- Last night I dentu in to my favourite radio station to hear a gig by Coldplay. tuned
- This programme is awful. Why don't we withsc snelnach? switch channels
- I always buy music and films on CD or DVD. I never treapi them. pirate
- A lot of teenagers visit loscia-wentrongik tisse to keep in touch with their friends. social networking sites
- When people call his mobile phone, everyone can hear the teongrin because it's really loud. ringtone
- To make a rushpace on the net you need to have a credit card. purchase
- Not all the life-granish isset where people get music are illegal. file-sharing sites

WORKBOOK ▶ page 56

/7 points

Total

/40 points